

Directions: Use this form to record one-word descriptions of your emotions other than those on the last four pages.

Problem-Solving Process	Emotion
Immediately after receiving the problem:
After defining the task:
After determining and prioritizing possible information sources:
After locating sources and finding information:
After using information:
After organizing and presenting information:
After evaluating the product and the process:	